Introducing the 2026 Inspire Lectureship
Discipleship in the City Track

Sponsored by the Center for Church and City Engagement, this track will explore discipleship in the city through the experiences of ministry leaders serving in Chicago and Houston. Participants will learn how churches are faithfully engaging diverse urban communities, forming disciples, supporting children and families facing poverty, and fostering lasting spiritual growth amid the opportunities and challenges of city life.

Through practical ministry insights, inspiring stories and biblical reflection, this track will encourage and equip church leaders and members to pursue faithful, transformational discipleship in their own communities.
