Youth Bible School

To Our Metro Family and Friends,

We extend our sincere gratitude to our church family and friends for your prayers, presence, and encouragement throughout our Black History Month presentations. Your support uplifted our students and helped create a loving and welcoming environment for them to share what they learned.

Thank you for celebrating biblical history with us and for investing in the spiritual growth of our children. Your kind words, smiles, and continued support mean more than you know. We are blessed to serve and grow together in love and unity.

With heartfelt appreciation.
The Bible School Team
